NOTIFICATION FOR PROVIDERS

Press Release

Trillium Health Resources is pleased to announce it has been awarded a Behavioral Health Intellectual/Developmental Disability (I/DD) Tailored Plan contract by the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services (NCDHHS) to coordinate integrated services for physical and behavioral health care in our catchment area. The contract will be effective July 1, 2022.

We will be in touch with our provider network (new and existing) over the next year to share about training opportunities, changes to our processes, and organizational updates. Please be sure to sign up to receive Network Communications Bulletins and visit our website.

For more information, please view the full press release.
